Overview

The Sport India Conference 2026 arrives at a pivotal moment in the nation's history. As India prepares to bid for and host the world's largest global sporting events over the next decade, the focus shifts from participation to leadership.

Scheduled to be held at the iconic Bharat Mandapam, this national-level conference serves as the ultimate convergence point for policymakers, industry titans, and physical education and sports professionals. Our mission is to bridge the gap between industrial commercialization and the educational foundations required to sustain India's rise as a global sporting superpower.
